Private Dining

2023
Thank you for considering The Aerie Restaurant for your next memorable event. The Aerie’s private dining rooms offer stunning décor and spectacular mountain views, from snow-covered vistas to lush summer scenery.

The following pages provide information regarding The Aerie restaurant and private dining rooms, including different limited menus and reception offerings. The Canyon Dining Room can accommodate up to 50 people and the Mountain Dining Room can accommodate up to 100 people, with a private access to a terrace.

A rental fee along with a food and beverage minimum will apply for the use of the Private Dining Rooms. The minimum can include food and beverage, but will exclude tax and service charge. If the food and beverage minimum exceeds your budget, other options are available within the restaurant’s main dining room.

To secure the usage of our Private Dining Rooms or restaurant space, a contractual agreement will need to be signed and a credit card will be required to secure the space.

Our Executive Chef is always happy to assist with any special dietary requirements or special menu requests. In addition, we offer special occasion cakes from our Snowbird Pastry Chef and feature a wine list of over 1,000 selections. A special wine list is available online here, or wine recommendations and pairings can be suggested. Valet parking at The Cliff Lodge is available.
Please review the following information to ensure that your group’s restaurant experience at Snowbird is memorable and successful.

Aerie Bars

In its private dining rooms, The Aerie offers two choices for bar service:

We can set up a physical bar in the private dining room and serve guests drinks at their table, at the bar or at a stand up reception. This option is available to any group, but specifically recommended for groups over 40 guests.

Bar service offering the same beverage selection can be provided by cocktail servers. If no physical bar is chosen, we do require cocktail servers for groups over 40 guests.

The Aerie service team will resume to bar service at the table during dinner, unless requested otherwise.
